Coordinator Instructing--This is the respective coordinator who is responsible for drill content, AV set-up, and refreshments.

Drill Location--This is the regional drill site. This is to help facilitate on-duty companies to attend. The site is only responsible for access and to accommodate the class. They are not responsible for any other aspects of the drill. It is the responsibility of the Coordinator instructing the drill to contact the respective site and let them know what they need.

Normal training is 3rd week of the month. However, keep in mind that training is based on availability of sites, instructors, and departments. All attempts will be made to keep with the above dates but they may be subject to change
